Allied Group announces the sale of Warren Valve Companies to Platinum Equity Partners

Dear Valued Customers, Suppliers, Partners, and Employees,

We've enjoyed a wonderful partnership with Warren Valve for the past 14 years and have successfully been able to grow the Valve business under Mark Day's leadership. We look forward to watching him and his team continue to do so in the future under new ownership. We value every relationship and partnership made throughout the time Warren Valve was a part of Allied Group.

Under this new ownership structure, Mark Day and his management team will continue to lead Warren Valve. At Allied Group, all current operations will continue as is. We are dedicated to remaining transparent and ensuring stability for our customers, suppliers, partners, and employees. We are confident there will be no interruption to our normal business operations.

We are committed to the continued growth and expansion of our primary remaining businesses, Allied Fitting, Allied Stainless, Allied Pipe, Hackney Ladish and Sigma Fasteners.

As for our customers, suppliers, partners, and employees, thank you for your dedication and contributions, as well as your continued partnership. You are the reason Allied Group is successful, and each of you are greatly appreciated.

I am excited about what's next to come for Allied Group and look forward to growing alongside the teams and individuals who have been with us for every step.

Sincerely,

Marc Herzstein
CEO
